

NAVISTAR UPDATES

November 13, 2012

Media Release - CAW Outraged by Navistar's Attempt to have Class Action Suit Dismissed

The CAW is expressing anger at the motion by heavy truck manufacturer Navistar to have the individual workers' class action law suit against the company dismissed. The case revolves around the failure of the corporation to pay severance to its workers after closing the Chatham, Ontario facility... To read the whole media release please click here